

Waldir Maranhão quoted Fernando Pessoa in praise to disabled people.

Brothers and Sisters – To read and share!

The Vice President of the Chamber of Deputies, Waldir Maranhão, praised the personalities who fight to ensure the equal rights to disabled people in the figure of the deafblind Alex Garcia, during the ceremony for the award Brazil More Inclusion, in the Chamber of Deputies, on Wednesday, December 7th.

Maranhão got touched and said: "I want to say to you Alex, that Fernando Pessoa summarized at the beginning of his life, a reflection, that "the stature of a man is not measured by his size, but for what he can see. "Yes Alex, the stature of a man is measured by the depth of his gaze and his comprehension of the world. You Alex, has this stature, the stature of a man who came to make history to the mankind, he emphasized.

This message can be read in Portuguese in this link:

<http://www2.camara.leg.br/a-camara/mesa/primeira-vice-presidencia/noticias/waldir-maranhao-cita-pessoa-em-elogio-aos-deficientes>

Alex Garcia – Deafblind Brazilian.

Winner of the Prize Brazil More Inclusion 2016.